

Console-ing Passions: International Conference on Television, Video, Audio, New Media and Feminism

21-23 July 2011, Adelaide, South Australia, Australia

Console-ing Passions 2011 is co-hosted by the Flinders University, the University of Adelaide, and the University of South Australia.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Console-ing Passions, the leading international scholarly network for feminist research in screen cultures, will hold its 2011 conference in Adelaide, South Australia, 21-23 July.

Organisers are now seeking proposals for individual papers and pre-constituted panels. Proposals are due November 30, 2010 and may be submitted to <http://www.flinders.edu.au/console-ing-passions>. Paper proposals must include the paper title, the author's contact details and a 300-word abstract. Panel proposals must include the panel title, names and contact details of all participants and chair and a summary statement of no more than 1500 words to include the abstract for each paper and a panel concept statement. Panels may have a maximum of three papers each.

Please find a list of possible streams for the conference below; these are suggestions, not limits. We strongly encourage contributions from across the Asia Pacific with an emphasis on regional issues, activities and trends.

Possible streams:

- National Screen Cultures and Feminism(s)
- Women in Media Production
- Children's Media and Gender
- Women, User Generated Content and New Media Economies
- Digital Games
- Archival Research
- Women, Sport, Broadcasting
- Media Education
- Indigenous Women and Media
- Media, Mobility and Scale

We also welcome a Curator for Screenings and Videotech.

For more information about the conference and keynote speakers, please visit: <http://www.flinders.edu.au/console-ing-passions>.

Dr Jodie George | Lecturer (Communications)
School of Communication, International Studies and Languages
Division of EASS | University of South Australia
St Bernard's Road | Magill SA 5072
phone: +61 8 8302 2963 | fax: +61 8 8302 4745 | jodie.george@unisa.edu.au